Summary

To report on the Council's activities relating to surveillance under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA) for 2021.

Recommendation (s)

The Committee is asked to:

- (1) note the report of the Council's use of its RIPA powers for 2021 and 2022.

1 Reason for Recommendation

- 1.1 This report is coming to committee to provide details of any surveillance carried out under RIPA powers. For 2021 and 2022 there were no such surveillance activities carried out. The policy is brought for members to approve as required under section 80 of the policy.

2 Background

- 2.1 The Council undertakes a number of functions which involve the enforcement of laws and regulation. On occasion, Officers may need to conduct investigations and, in exceptional circumstances, the Council has the power to make use of covert surveillance and similar activities.
- 2.2 The Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA) and the Codes of Practice issued under section 71 of that Act, regulates the way in which the Council conducts surveillance for the purposes of law enforcement.
- 2.3 The fundamental requirement of RIPA is that when the Council considers undertaking directed surveillance or using a covert human intelligence source it must only do so if:

- a) the activity has been authorised by an officer with appropriate powers, and
 - b) the relevant criteria are satisfied, including authorisation by the Magistrates Court.
- 2.4 All RIPA surveillance which the Council wishes to authorise must be approved by an Authorising Officer and also be approved by a Magistrate. Where a Local Authority wishes to seek to carry out a directed surveillance or make use of a human intelligence source the Council must apply to a single Justice of the Peace. The Home Office issued guidance to Local Authorities and to Magistrates on the approval process for RIPA authorisations.

Inspections

- 2.5 The Investigatory Powers Commissioner's Office has responsibility to oversee the exercise of the use by Councils of their surveillance powers.
- 2.6 An inspection was carried out in 2020, by the Investigatory Powers Commissioner's Office. There were no recommendations which the Council was asked to implement.
- 2.7 The council has a Policy & Guidance on Lawful Surveillance, Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 and this has been updated to reflect changes in personnel.
- 2.8 Even though the Council does not often use its powers under the Regulatory Investigatory Powers Act, it remains critical for Officers to understand how to operate the Council's Surveillance Policy. The last training exercise was delivered in late 2018 and was offered to all Surrey Councils to develop better joint learning. We will look to provide further refresher training given the length of time since the last training.

Use of Powers 2021 and 2022

- 2.9 There were no applications for directed surveillance authorisations in 2021 and 2022.

3.1.1 Use of investigatory powers potentially engages the Human Rights Act 1998 and in particular the qualified right to private and family life under article 8 of the European Convention. This right may only be interfered with in circumstances where it is necessary and proportionate to do so in pursuit of the public interest. The Council's RIPA Policy & Guidance document is designed to facilitate compliance with the Human Rights Act.

3.2 Crime & Disorder

3.2.1 It is important to ensure regulatory investigative procedures are kept up to date and once the current Inspection is completed any recommendations will be included as part of the review.
